1. INTRODUCTION: Manipur excels in Sports and the Department of Youth Affairs & Sports is committed to the promotion of Games and Sports including Indigenous games and Youth activities in the state. Various training and coaching programmes, tournaments and championships in various sports disciplines and other physical activities were held in the state. Games & Sports form an inseparable part of the lives of people of Manipur. In earlier days, it flourished in different forms of Indigenous Games and enjoyed the Royal Patronage. After the introduction of modern games by Sir Churachand Singh, KCSI, CBE and formation of Manipur Olympic Association after the Second World War, the players of this State have shown excellence in various sports activities. The successful hosting of the V National Games in 1999 and the installation of modern infrastructures have helped to enhance the standard of the players further. Today, this tiny State is proud of having 13 (thirteen) Olympians, 1(one) Padmabushan Awardee 3(three) Padmashree Awardees 16 (sixteen) Arjuna Awardees, 2 (two) Rajiv Gandhi KhelRatna Awardee, 1(one) Dhyanchand Awardee and 1(one) Dronacharya Awardee. A good number of sportspersons are playing under different banners country-wide. For a poor and resource-handicapped State like Manipur, Games & Sports have become an employment avenue as well as a past time for the youths and veterans alike. As an acknowledgement to the achievement of sports persons, the first national Sports University will be established in Manipur.

State Sports Policy: A State Sports Policy was adopted in 1992 which was again amended in 2003 and different programmes like Financial Assistance to State Sports Associations, Employment of Sportspersons in various Government Units, Creation of Sports Infrastructures are taken up under the Policy.

State Youth Policy: A State Youth Policy was approved and notified by the Government on 16-3-2011. Different Youth welfare programmes were taken up under this policy.

2. ADMINISTRATIVE SET-UP: The Department of Youth Affairs & Sports was bifurcated from the Education Department on 16th April, 1980 and since then, the Department implement various programmes for the promotion of Games and Sports and various Youth Welfare Programmes in the State.
